(a) No. Reasoning - The entire data set will have data about all the possible transactions thus we would be able to directly get the results that we deisre.

(b) Yes. Reasoning - The difference we see is for a sample and not for the entire population that is present in the entire dataset.

(c) Yes. Reasoning - The difference we see is for a sample and not for the entire population that is present in the entire dataset.